COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE BULLETIN
March 24, 2013

This week, Michael Kelly moved into his role as Tech Support Supervisor. Sean Ellefson, who was serving as our Acting Tech Support Supervisor, helped Michael learn the ropes before his last day on March 23.

With the departure of former Collective members Sean and Stephen Getman, who is currently on unpaid leave through the beginning of April, Free Geek has fully transitioned into its new management structure. Once again, we express our appreciation for all the hard work and dedication of everyone who was in the Collective.

Free Geek's semi-monthly All-Staff Meeting will be this Thursday, March 28. Along with other agenda items, the Board will be represented to give staff a chance to hear updates and ask questions about the Strategic Planning Committee's work, recent and upcoming issues under consideration by the Board, and other topics that may be on staff's hearts and minds.

The Senior Management Team is currently meeting every Tuesday and Thursday morning. They are actively soliciting ideas, comments and questions from all members of the Free Geek community. The best way to share with them is via email at smt@lists.freegeek.org.

Sincerely,
Your Communications Committee
